

SELECTED WORKS:

- Michigan Central* May 2023
5-story neon installation for a building facade in the Bagley Mobility Hub
- Heaphy Wedding* June 2022
Commission to design and build lighting installations for banquet hall, altar, and dance reception areas
- PRISM* May 2022
Grant awarded to design and install a neon blacklight environment for local Detroit event
- GM* February 2022
Neon installation set design for General Motor's Celestiq advertising campaign
- Audetorium* January 2022
Design-build of hanging fluorescent light installation for Audetorium's commercial video
- City Bark* December 2021
Design-build of point of sale, with focus on soft color, glow, and materiality
- Pulsar* October 2021
Commission to design and build a large-scale light installation for the Dlectricity light festival
- City Bark* March 2021
Design-build project to reconceptualize the typical pet wash as an upscale experience
- Rothko Generator* January 2021
A generative, colored light installation for the greenhouses at downtown Detroit's Capitol Park.
- RELEASE* November 2020
Design-build LED signage for RELEASE dance studio, with custom wifi controller for user interaction
- Weiss Distillery* October 2020
Design-build bathroom chambers featuring immersive neon, custom LED, and mirror
- Dawn Chorus* September 2019
Recipient of a Knights Art grant to design, fabricate, and install a permanent outdoor sculpture for Magnet Park
- MOPOP* July 2019
Commission to build large-scale light towers wth custom branding for the entrance to MOPOP music festival

Patrick Ethen

is an architecturally trained light artist and designer, best known for installations which explore the relationship between analog and digital systems, the production of emergent behavior, and the role of the human hand in a digital age.

www.patrickethen.com

SELECTED WORKS: (continued)

- Facebook Artist in Residency* August 2017
Collaboration with artist Ellen Rutt to design a topographic, illuminated mural relief
- Monochromatic Light Quilt* July 2017
Commission to create a permanent light wall for the banquet room in the Foundation Hotel

PRODUCTS:

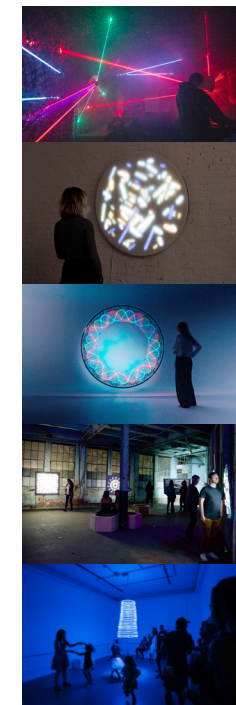

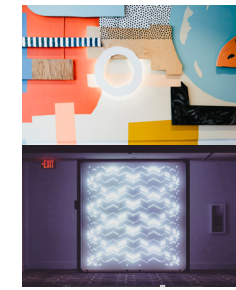

- Pink Light District* October 2019
Hanging wall light with soft pink, translucent glow for nighttime activities
- Ghost Clocks* October 2019
Interactive clock made with LED lights. Includes a multitude of behaviors for visual stimulation
- Ultra Light Beam* September 2018
Commission to make a pendant light inspired by minimalist Japanese architecture
- Binary Star* December 2017
Lamp with analog inputs, simulates a binary star system. Users can adjust speed and brightness

EXHIBITIONS:

- Texture Detroit, Artist in Residence* 2017-Present
Custom-built objects and installations at this Detroit-based, underground music experience
- Not a Gallery* October 2022
Solo exhibition just for fun, in Tribeca, NYC
- Dream Sequence* June 2021
Solo exhibition as a recipient of Playground Detroit's Emerging Artists grant
- Field Condition* October 2019
Solo exhibition featuring a recent body of light work, partnership with Playground Detroit
- Artist Residency: Temple Children, Hilo* November 2019
Sculptural light installation built without digital fabrication tools, featured at gallery exhibition

EDUCATION:

- BS Architecture, University of Michigan* 2012

Patrick Ethen

is an architecturally trained light artist and designer, best known for installations which explore the relationship between analog and digital systems, the production of emergent behavior, and the role of the human hand in a digital age.

www.patrickethen.com

www.patrickethen.com